

Rags to riches aids research

A rag doll raffled by members of the Anti-Submarine Warfare Instructors' Association, at H.M.S. Vernon, Portsmouth, raised £60 for Cancer Research.

A further £40 was raised at a presentation evening, when Chief Petty Officer Jim Gree handed over a £100 cheque to Portsmouth Cancer Research Campaign representative, Mr. John Lewington.

Attending the presentation was Portsmouth landlady Mrs. Eve Whymark, who donated the doll to the association for fund-raising.

Also present were the Captain of H.M.S. Vernon, and president of A.S.W.I.A., Captain Keith Sutherland (R.N.), and brewery representative, Mr. Roger Abberley.

Roger Abberley, Eve Whymark, John Lewington, and Chief Petty Officer Jim Gree at the presentation.